SIR Seminars & Claim / Product Summit -- speaker presentations

Presentations from the recent Society of Insurance Research conference in San Antonio, Texas are now available on the Internet.

If you attended the event, we are very pleased that you found the program so valuable, as indicated by the on-site evaluations. If you are a Member of the Society who did not attend, we hope you will be present in the future to harvest the benefits of discussion and networking that go far beyond the posted presentations.

Please mark your calendar for the Annual Conference to be held October 19-22, 2008 at the Hilton Savannah DeSoto in Savannah, Georgia. It is a beautiful city, and an historic setting from which to look into the future of the industry. Speakers already scheduled include the experts who can provide key insights on what is over the horizon in product management, distribution, and other disciplines.

If you are interested in speaking, exhibiting, or sponsoring at an SIR event, or if you have any other question about the SIR, please call 317-398-3684 or email sir.mail@comcast.net.

Presentations from San Antonio which have been provided by the speakers may be found at the link below. A few more may become available, so please retain your password and check back during the next two weeks for any additions. These materials will remain available to all conference attendees, at the linked location, for at least two weeks. After that they will reside in the Members Only section of the SIR site. (SIR Members can access these materials either through the link below or in the Members Only section of www.sirnet.org.)

If you are not an SIR Member, you are missing out on material like this from other SIR events! Please note that the annual cost of membership is usually less than the Member discount to attend the Annual Conference. And during the past several months the Society has enhanced the SIR web site, added the SIR personalized research portal, and added research and member services to make the Society an even greater value! See how to join: <http://www.sirnet.org/join/join.htm>
